in to determine whether or not any intoxicating liquors shall be sold at any place in that county.

The distiller, brewer and those who favor the sales of intoxicants have by petition caused the suspension of this bill and seek to in effect repeal the same by vote of the people.

The danger, and it is a real danger, is that either on account of indifference of the voter a great many who are in favor of this law will fail to vote, or that the voter will on account of the many questions submitted to a vote on the "Initiative and Referendum" amendment to our constitution conclude to take no chances of voting for a bad measure and vote "No" on all.

The accomplishment of this object is believed to have had much to do with having the ballot so loaded down with proposed laws for the repeal of Acts passed by the legislature.

Every person interested in good government should vote "YES" on proposition NO. TEN on the ballot.

Indifference on the part of those who favor the County Unit Bill may result in its defeat.

If the voters generally will be careful to their sentiments this Bill will be saved and a great advance will be made in the direction of better conditions in county, state or nation.

Look well to your vote on NO. TEN.

A Citizen.

Remember, Your vote is needed to make a Democratic victory in Missouri certain.

Bankson-Schales.

Miss Emma Bankson of Foster and Mr. Willie Schales of Kansas City were quietly married in the parlor of the Cottage Hotel, Butler, Mo., Sunday morning at 9 a. m. Miss Lulla Hamilton ann Mr. Ross Vaughn were bride's maid and best man. The ceremony was said by R. M. Webdell of the Baptist church in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Miss Hazel, sister of the bride and about ten young folks accompanied the party to Butler. These were a jolly lot of fine folks. The happy couple immediately left for Kansas City where they will reside.

Go to the polls early and stay late next Tuesday and use your best endeavors to see that President Wilson and Governor Major have Democrats to assist them in the enactment of wholesome and beneficial laws.
